Numb. 7511.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 29. to Tuesday June 1. 1736.

Whitehall, May 31.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland: Which Addreſſes her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

AMIDST the publick Expreſſions of Joy, permit us, moſt Gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs Auguſta, a Princeſs ſprung from an illuſtrious Houſe, from whom the Reformation found the earlieſt Protection.

Your Majeſty has always conſulted our Happineſs in your juſt and mild Government, and ſecuring to us the Bleſſings of Peace; but in this Inſtance, that of Poſterity, who we hope, to lateſt Times, may be rul'd by Proteſtant Princes deſcended from this illuſtrious Pair.

And as we are truly ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall in our ſeveral Stations, uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to make your Reign over us happy and eaſy to your Majeſty.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereto affixed this Tenth Day of May, 1736.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with her moſt Serene Highneſs the Princeſs of Saxe-Gotha.

All your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects muſt receive the greateſt Satisfaction from the Choice of a Conſort for his Royal Highneſs of ſuch diſtinguiſh'd Merit, deſcended from a Line of Princes illuſtrious for their early and diſintereſted Appearance in Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, at a Time when Popery was ſupported by the greateſt Powers in Europe.

From a Marriage thus auſpiciouſly begun may reaſonably be expected a Royal Iſſue, who like their illuſtrious Anceſtors, will be always foremoſt in the Cauſe of Truth and Liberty.

Theſe are Proſpects which muſt be agreeable to all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, but in a more particular Manner to us whom his Royal Highneſs has honoured with his more immediate Protection, by condeſcending to accept the Office of Chancellor of this Univerſity; an Honour and Happineſs for which we ſhall ever think ourſelves obliged to return our moſt dutiful and moſt grateful Acknowlegements.

That God may therefore bleſs their Royal Highneſſes with a numerous Iſſue, which ſhall continue down to lateſt Poſterity the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, muſt be the Prayer of every honeſt Man within your Majeſty's Dominions, but more eſpecially of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects.

Berlin, June 2, N. S. The general and particular Reviews being all finiſhed here, his Pruſſian Majeſty propoſes to leave this Place To-morrow: He goes firſt to Wuſterhauſen, from whence, after having viſited ſome Eſtates in that Neighbourhood, he removes to Potzdam on Tueſday or Wedneſday next; and on the 12th Inſtant he ſets out on his Journey to Magdebourg. It has been ſaid here for ſome Time, that his Pruſſian Majeſty deſigns alſo to take this Summer a Journey to Pruſſia.

Hambourg, June 5, N. S. Laſt Saturday their Daniſh Majeſties arrived at Altena about Six a-Clock in the Afternoon, accompanied by the Princeſs Charlotte, the Princeſs
